TESTED SEEDS

OUR TRADE MARKS

One of the two registered devices shown is affixed to every packet of seeds distributed by us. They are both simple and sufficiently distinct to protect everyone desirous of obtaining "Carters Tested Seeds" as supplied in sealed Packages.

CARTERS TESTED SEEDS

THE prominence we have given to our Trade Mark "Tested Seeds" over so long a period has repeatedly given rise to the question, "What do you mean by Tested Seeds?" Believing that the raising, growing, testing, etc., of Seeds will be a matter of interest to our Customers, we take this opportunity of giving an explanation of some of the methods that were employed leading up to the introduction to the gardening world of such well-known Peas as TELEPHONE, STRATAGEM, DAISY, MAYFLOWER, INTERNATIONAL, QUITE CONTENT, MARKET GARDENER, GRADUS, etc., etc., a process which frequently involves seven to eight years of patient observation and labour before a new introduction can be placed with confidence before the attention of our Customers.

We have selected culinary Peas as our illustration because they are more easily identified, but analogous methods have to be pursued in the improvement of all varieties of Vegetables and Flowers, a work which we have made—and still continue to make—a special feature of our business.

Let us assume that one of our Experts has observed a promising seedling, produced from cross-fertilization the previous year in our experimental grounds; its merits and characteristics are carefully noted in our Garden Registers. Possibly it may produce an extraordinarily large pod, like QUITE CONTENT, or it may be earlier, later, taller, more prolific and compact, etc., than any other variety shown in our comparative trials to be in commerce.

The product of the plant is then carefully harvested and sown the following spring, when it again goes through the same routine, maybe for six or seven years, to secure constancy and fixation of its special characteristics; the produce by this time may have increased to several bushels, when it is ready to be sown for a crop. Ground that is particularly suited to the variety is carefully selected, and the Seed is sown. In the early-summer, when the plants are in maturity, our Experts, who have watched the character of the Pea ever since it was a seedling in our experimental grounds, examine every plant, eliminating any that show a weakness or lack of uniformity; the crop is then harvested, stacked, and threshed, and eventually comes to our warehouse to be cleaned, hand-picked, and finally tested for germination. The subsequent processes of testing, etc., we have had pleasure in illustrating with notes in previous issues of our catalogue.

A view of some of our seventy-five Cleaning and Pea-picking Machines, all driven by electric motors, has also been given previously.

The founder of our firm, JAMES CARTER, was, we believe, the first to guarantee the germination of his Garden Seeds eighty-four years ago; the practice as amplified in our illustrations is still conducted annually by our Firm.

All Vegetables, Flowers, and Farm Seeds, are grown at Raynes Park, at the same time as our Customers grow them, to full maturity, so that we may assure ourselves of the quality and trueness of each variety. By examining our trials from time to time we know exactly how the produce of our Seeds should appear in the gardens and farms of our Customers all over the World, making allowances for the various climates, and by the aid of our comparative tests (we try all Seeds of repute) we assure ourselves that our Customers are growing "the best and only the best" and "Tested."

To Our Customers

THIS is the 86th year of the firm James Carter and Company, Raynes Park, London, and this catalogue the 10th annual issue of Carters Tested Seeds, Incorporated. Therefore, we cannot refrain from taking again the opportunity of expressing our appreciation to our customers and patrons for the use they have made of our previous catalogues. We hope this and our future issues may continue to be of even greater service to them.

Our object has been and will be to place in their hands a catalogue which will be complete, clean and condensed so that they in making their selections of seeds, etc., may be greatly assisted thereby and with the result that their gardens may produce flowers and vegetables of the highest quality and types and their lawns provide that beautiful and lovely green, so restful and pleasing to the eye and for which the Carter sown lawns have gained world wide reputation.

Every year brings us many letters with appreciative details of the success attending the use of our seeds, which are always gratifying and encouraging to us in our work of hybridising and re-selecting, to improve the productiveness and beauty of the gardens of our friends in all parts of the world.

We have improved our catalogue this year, hoping it may be of still greater use to our friends than in the past, and stimulate them to use tested seeds giving the greatest production; thereby effecting a patriotic economy in these days of high-priced vegetables.

TERMS

PRICES. In this period of readjustment, we wish to do our part by furnishing the best seeds obtainable at the lowest possible price, and in most cases we are able to sell at pre-war prices. We are not trying to compete with firms selling cheap, inferior seeds, but we do give the finest seeds grown at as low a price as they can be produced. All prices subject to change without notice.

SPECIAL FREE DELIVERY. We deliver free all seeds by the packet, ounce and pound. Larger quantities by express or parcel post at customers' expense. If goods that we do not deliver free of charge are ordered to come by parcel post, please add postage at the zone rate. Your postmaster will tell you which zone from New York you are in. The mailing weight of beans, corn and peas is one pint, 1 lb.; one quart, 2 lbs.

CONDITIONS OF SALE. As we have no control over the climate, soil and other conditions, we can not guarantee the crop. We give no warranty, expressed or implied, as to description, growth, purity, productiveness, or any other matter connected with any seeds, bulbs or plants, etc., we send out, and will not in any way be responsible for the crop. All seeds and other goods are supplied only on these conditions.

REMITTANCES should be made by Draft on Bank, Post Office Order, Registered Letter, or Express Money Order. Small sums may be sent in postage stamps. We draw attention to the necessity for particular care in having name, post-office, county and state distinctly written; we are in receipt of many orders deficient in these important particulars. Charge accounts opened to persons of approved credit.

C. O. D. Orders cost the customers extra for returning the money, but will send C. O. D. where the request is accompanied by 25 per cent of the value of your order.

IMPORTANT. Write your name and address plainly, or better still, print it. Order Vegetable and Flower Seeds by number only, and do not write inquiries on the order. Any questions, remarks or letter should be on a separate sheet of paper. Keep a copy of your order, and if you do not hear from us in a reasonable time, send a duplicate order, naming the date on which the original order was sent, the amount of money enclosed, and in what form.

ORDER BY NUMBER. All Vegetable and Flower Seeds in our catalogue are numbered, and we especially request our customers to order by Numbers only. We try to get the order out by return mail, but parcel post takes longer than a letter, so do not write until there has been plenty of time for your order to reach you.

ORDER EARLY. While we expect to have enough stock to fill all orders, an unusual demand may exhaust some article.

MISTAKES IN FILLING ORDER. We take the utmost care in filling orders, but our clerks are only human, and mistakes will sometimes occur. We will consider it a favor if you will notify us at once, should there be a mistake in your order, and it will be promptly rectified.

All claims must be made within 5 days after receipt of goods.

PACKING. We make no charges for cases or packing, only for cotton and burlap bags; these we invoice at cost.

PARCEL POST RATES. From the 4th to 8th zone packages weighing 10 pounds or more usually go cheaper by express. (Poisons and fluids cannot be sent by mail.)

TESTED SEEDS

CHOICE VEGETABLES

In making up our list of Vegetable Seeds, we have selected the best strains as proved by experience of both Carters Tested Seeds, Inc., and J. M. Thorburn & Co., and can state without fear of contradiction that no such complete list of high-class tested seeds can be found in any other catalogue.

Some varieties of seeds may again be late in reaching us this season. Under the circumstances it will be well, therefore, to state when ordering, whether we are at liberty to substitute or not. Customers can depend upon our using our best judgment in substituting other equally good sorts for those ordered which we may not be able to supply.

HINTS ON PLANTING SEED

TIME TO PLANT. As the time for planting differs according to location, and our customers live in so many different latitudes, we cannot give a different time for each place, so instead of giving a definite time we submit a planting table on page 93, which will be found a good guide for the East and Middle Western States.

ARTICHAUT ARTICHOKE Alcachofa

CULTURE.—Hardy perennial requiring protection in our climate. Sow seed $\frac{1}{2}$ inch apart in April or May, and when plants are large enough, transplant into rows 3 to 4 feet apart. Deep, rich, sandy loam with plenty of well-rotted manure. Artichoke may also be treated as an annual by sowing the seed in hotbeds during February, potting the plants to avoid setting back and transplanting in May when frosts are past.

110. Globe Green. Pkt. 15c., oz. $1.00.

115. Crown Artichoke, Earliest Drumhead. The finest strain in cultivation. Pkt. 15c., oz. $1.25.

ASPERGES ASPARAGUS Esparrago

CULTURE.—Sow the seed thinly in rows 1 foot apart in April or May (4 or 5 pounds to the acre; 1 ounce will sow a 50-foot row). In planting for private use, set out in beds 6 feet wide, three rows in a bed, the outer being each 1 foot from the edge, and allow 2 feet between the rows; set the plants from 6 to 8 inches below the surface, 2 feet apart. For market, on a large scale, set out 2 by $1\frac{1}{2}$ feet. Every fall apply a good dressing of coarse manure, after the tops have been cut, and in spring fork in. Never cut too closely.

172. Martha Washington. New and Rust Proof Pedigree Asparagus. Developed by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and since improved by their careful selection and grading. Pkt. 15c., oz. 35c., lb. $5.00.

175. Carters Mammoth Emperor. A giant strain, producing enormous stalks of very superior flavor. Under favorable conditions this may be cut the second year from seed. Pkt. 10c., oz. 25c., lb. $2.50.

185. Reading Giant. A fine market asparagus. Pkt. 10c., oz. 20c., lb. $1.50.

190. Batavian. Improved Palmetto. Pkt. 5c., oz. 15c., lb. $1.25.

ASPARAGUS ROOTS.

This is the first Spring vegetable to appear, and one of the most delicious. A bed once established will last for many years, with little or no care.

Asparagus roots should be planted in their beds directly they are received, as they deteriorate by being kept out of the ground.

Extra strong forcing roots can be supplied in December and planting roots in March if weather conditions are favorable, otherwise in April.

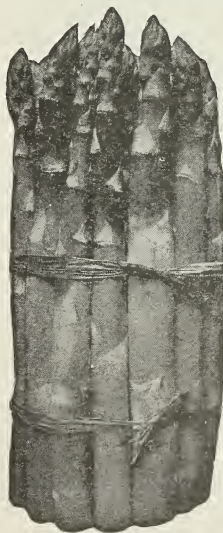

Martha Washington.

The new and pedigreed rust proof Asparagus raised originally by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture at Washington and sent out by that Dept. as the best white variety yet raised or offered. The growers of Asparagus Roots are very enthusiastic regarding its excellent merits. Per doz. 75c., per 100 $2.75.

Colossal Asparagus. Two-year-old roots. 50c. per doz., $1.75 per 100, $15.00 per 1,000.

Reading Giant. Two-year roots. 60c. per doz., $2.50 per 100.

Palmetto. Two-year-old roots, fine and strong, one of the standard market varieties. 50c. per doz., $1.50 per 100, $13.50 per 1,000.

Mammoth Emperor. Two year old roots. 60c. per doz., $2.50 per 100, $20.00 per 1,000.

Limas should not be planted until warm weather has fairly set in. BETTERAVE BEET Remolacha

CULTURE.—Sow as early in the spring as the ground can be worked (1 ounce to 50 feet of drill; 5 or 6 pounds to the acre), and every two weeks after for a succession up to the first week of July. For general crop, sow about the middle of May. The soil should be light, sandy loam, well enriched with stable manure and plowed and harrowed until very fine. SUGAR BEET

The Sugar Beets are desirable not only for sugar making but are valuable for stock feeding. The best soil is a rich, friable loam. Rich, mucky soils will often give an immense yield of roots which, though excellent for feed, are of little value for sugar making.

Plant early in spring in drills two to two and one-half feet apart and about one inch apart in the row, covering with about one and one-half inches of fine soil firmly pressed down. Cultivate frequently. When about three inches high begin thinning and continue at intervals until the roots stand about ten inches apart.

2000. Klein Wanzleben. More extensively grown than any other variety for making sugar; used almost exclusively by all sugar factories. The average yield is from 15 to 20 tons per acre with about 18 per cent of sugar. Pkt. 5c., oz. 15c., lb. 85c.

2010. Vilmorin's Improved. One of the richest sorts in sugar content. The tops are of medium size, with smooth, bright green leaves. Pkt. 5c., oz. 15c., lb. 75c.

5605. Carters Half Tall Scotch Kale. A fitting companion to our well-known Dwarf Extra Curled type. The leaves are very dense and moss curled. Stands the cold weather. If the leaves at the top are cut during the early part of the winter, it will greatly encourage the growth of the young shoots. Pkt. 10c., oz. 30c., lb. $3.00.

5607. Carters Dwarf Extra Curled Kale. Award of Merit R. H. S. A re-selected and crested form of the Early Kale. It will resist the most intense frost, and makes a delicious winter dish. Pkt. 10c., oz. 30c., lb. $3.00.

CULTURE.—For early crop, as soon as ground is fit, sow thinly $\frac{1}{2}$ inch deep in seed-bed with rows 1 foot apart. CAULIFLOWER

CHOU-FLEUR Coliflor

CULTURE.—Cauliflower can be grown for an early crop by starting the seed under glass late in February or very early in March. Prick out the seedlings once. Keep them stocky but do not stunt. Harden off to set out when the soil is in best condition in April. The late kinds may be planted out the same time as cabbage. It is also possible to get a late crop by sowing the early varieties in seed-bed early in June, transplanting when about 5 inches high, giving the plants liquid manure or nitrate of soda.

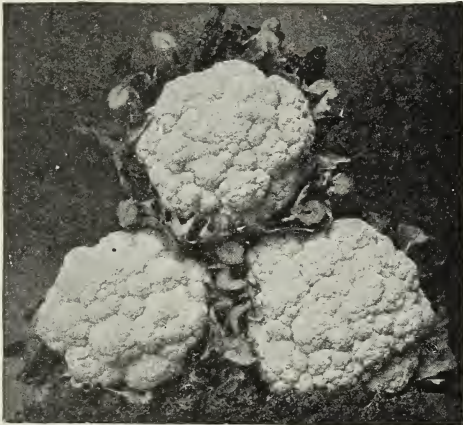

When the heads form and begin to push aside the small leaves; tie the larger leaves together over the center, leaving some loose, to exclude rain and sun.

CHOU CABBAGE Col repollo

CULTURE.—Soil for Cabbage should be rich and loam heavy, with good drainage. For early spring, sow in fall, not too early, for the plants are liable to bolt in the spring instead of heading. In a month the plants will be fit to transplant to cold frames, where they are wintered. Transplant in spring as soon as the ground can be worked, setting the plants 2 feet apart one way and from 12 to 18 inches the other, according to the variety. For late or winter crop, the seed is sown in May, and the plants set out in July. One ounce of seed will produce 2,000 to 2,500 plants. The culture for Cabbage should be clean and regular. Do not allow the ground to dry out.

CELERY CELERY Apios

CULTURE.—Sow the seed in a light, rich, dry border as early as the ground can be worked and cover the seeds about $\frac{1}{4}$ inch deep. One ounce will be sufficient for 2,500 to 3,000 plants. When fairly out of the seed-leaf, they may be transplanted to another bed, or they may be thinned out to 6 or 8 inches apart, and let grow until wanted to plant out in beds or trenches. The beds should be kept well weeded, and an occasional soaking with water in dry weather will do the plants good. Early in July in the North, a month or six weeks later in the southern states, is the proper time to set the plants out in beds or trenches. The plants must be set in a single row in a narrow trench; or the trench may be made into a bed wide enough to hold two rows, 1 foot apart, and the plants about 8 inches apart in the rows. The bed should be made very rich with thoroughly decomposed manure. The plants will need to be earthed up two or three times, the first time when the plants are 4 inches or more above the ground. Care should be taken not to let the earth get into the heart of the plant. When severe cold weather comes on, cover gradually with leaves, hay or straw, and place boards on top. The turnip-rooted Celery (Celeriac) needs no earthing up, and may be planted in rows 1 to $1\frac{1}{2}$ feet apart, the plants 9 inches apart in the rows.

3205. Carters Solid Ivory. One of the most remarkable features of Carters Solid Ivory Celery is its extreme dwarf compact habit and beautiful white color. Many prizes awarded this variety. Pkt. 20c., oz. \$1.00., $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. \$3.00.

Nothing is tastier than a steaming juicy ear of Sweet Corn when fresh from the garden.

MELON MUSCADE

Melon Muscatel

CULTURE.—Select a light, rich, sandy soil, and, after all danger of frosts is over and the ground has become warm and dry, plant in hills 4 to 5 feet apart each way, 6 to 10 seeds to a hill. When up pull out all but three plants. Cultivate until the vines cover the ground, and pinch the ends of the growing shoots to induce early fruiting. Ashes, or lime, are excellent to sift over young plants when the dew is on, to prevent the attacks of insects. For sucking insects, use Abol Insecticide. The hills should have a mixture of well-rotted manure and a fertilizer spaded in, covering with a few inches of earth. Cultivate regularly after each rain.

POIS

PEAS Chicharos o Guisantes

CULTURE.—Sow as early as the ground can be worked. To hasten germination, soak seeds over night. Peas may be sown in this vicinity as late as August 10. Medium and Late Peas must be planted early; Extra-Earlies may be planted again in August. Sow in single or double rows, from 4 to 6 feet apart, 3 inches deep, 2 pounds to 100 feet of drill. In this climate the 8 weeks Pea, if planted from the 1st to the 10th of August, will produce a fair crop for fall picking, when Peas will be most acceptable. As Peas suffer in drought, moisture should be conserved by good cultivation. They should also be planted deep, especially the later crops. For this purpose furrow out to 6 inches in depth and cover the seed to only 2 or 3 inches. As the plants grow, fill up the furrow, gradually.

VEGETABLE MARROW

The Vegetable Marrow Squashes are of English production and should be more generally used in this country as they are far superior in every way to our summer Squash. They will grow well anywhere with just a little care, and the results are more than satisfying. When the fruit is from half to three quarters grown prepare similarly to Squash or slice and fry, like Egg Plant, and the superiority in both cases is remarkable.

TOMATO

Sow in a hotbed in early spring, about $\frac{1}{8}$ inch deep, or in shallow boxes placed in a window. One ounce will produce 1,500 to 2,000 plants. Transplant to the open ground when all danger of frost is past, setting the plants 3 to 4 feet apart each way. Soil should have a good supply of moisture. It should be deep, with plenty of well-rotted manure. Feed the plants only once or twice lightly with manure water or Complete Manure. Tomatoes that have not ripened at the end of the season may be taken from the vines and placed in empty coldframes where a large proportion of them will ripen from time to time, frequently until Christmas.

Turnips are generally sown broadcast, but much larger crops are obtained (particularly of the Rutabagas) by cultivating in drills 18 inches apart, and thinning to 6 inches in the drill. Sow in shallow drills, 2 pounds to the acre; 1 ounce to 100 feet of drill; broadcast, 3 pounds to the acre.

THE CARTER REPUTATION FOR QUALITY

The most convincing proof of what any business house can do for you is what it has done for others in the past. The houses of James Carter & Co., London, England, and of J. M. Thorburn & Co., New York, have served an ever-widening circle of patrons for over a hundred years. Today we are without doubt one of the largest and best-known seed houses in the world. Our prices, quality considered, are as low as those of any other firm. We will not, however, sell seeds of inferior quality to meet low-priced competition. This policy is responsible for our present recognized standing in the seed trade.

The best time of the year to kill worms is during the breeding seasons, that is, roughly speaking, from the end of August to the beginning of December, and from the end of March to the end of May.

If water is laid on to a lawn or green, the Worm Killer should be applied during a spell of warm, dull, muggy weather, and watered in the usual manner.

If water is not laid on to the lawn or green, but a fair supply is available, greater care should be taken in choosing the time of application, that is to say, the Worm Killer should be applied towards the evening during a continuous spell of warm, moist, dull, muggy weather.

THE CARTER SYSTEM OF TURF PRODUCTION

The practical nature of the Carter System has made Carters the LEADERS OF THE WORLD in the business of Golf Course Construction and Turf Production

For the last twenty years we have been doing in the United States what we have been doing for an even longer period in Great Britain and other parts of Europe. We have been producing from seed golf turf of the highest quality.

Our first attempt in this country was made at the Country Club, Brookline, Mass. The result was a turf of such fine quality that this club has been selected by the United States Golf Association as the site of many national championships. It was last year chosen for the Amateur Championship of 1922.

Our system—the Carter System—has been shown to be completely successful on many other championship courses since the seed was first sown at Brookline. It is a system which, as Harry Lauder might say, “has stood the test of time.” There are several reasons for its success.

In the first place Carters Tested Seeds, Inc., is a firm that is not merely interested in the sale of grass seed. It is interested in the production of golfing turf. The fact that our seed is the finest procurable does not guarantee the growth of fine grass regardless of weather and soil conditions. It is our knowledge of these conditions and our ability to prepare the soil to meet the rigors of our climate that enable us to produce “the finest results from the finest seeds.”

Our knowledge of local conditions has been acquired, and is being constantly acquired, by our Service Department, members of which are always ready to impart their advice to Green Committees and Greenkeepers. Their advice is given gratis and has saved clubs many thousands of dollars which would otherwise have been wasted through ignorance of the proper seed and other materials to be used. Our “Practical Greenkeeper” and our service bulletin, “The Golf Course” have also proved of great value in this respect and are mailed free on request to those interested in the construction or maintenance of a golf course.

Associated with us are golf course architects whose names are known wherever golf is played and in many places where golf will soon be played. These architects are always ready to furnish plans for the laying out of a new course or the remodeling of an old one. From their preliminary reports we draw up estimates, showing in detail the cost of construction, seed, fertilizer, Rex Humus and other materials.

In our employ there are thoroughly skilled and competent construction superintendents, capable of reproducing to the smallest detail the architect’s plans, and by their employment we can guarantee to turn out a finished golf course, built scientifically on modern lines in the shortest possible time.

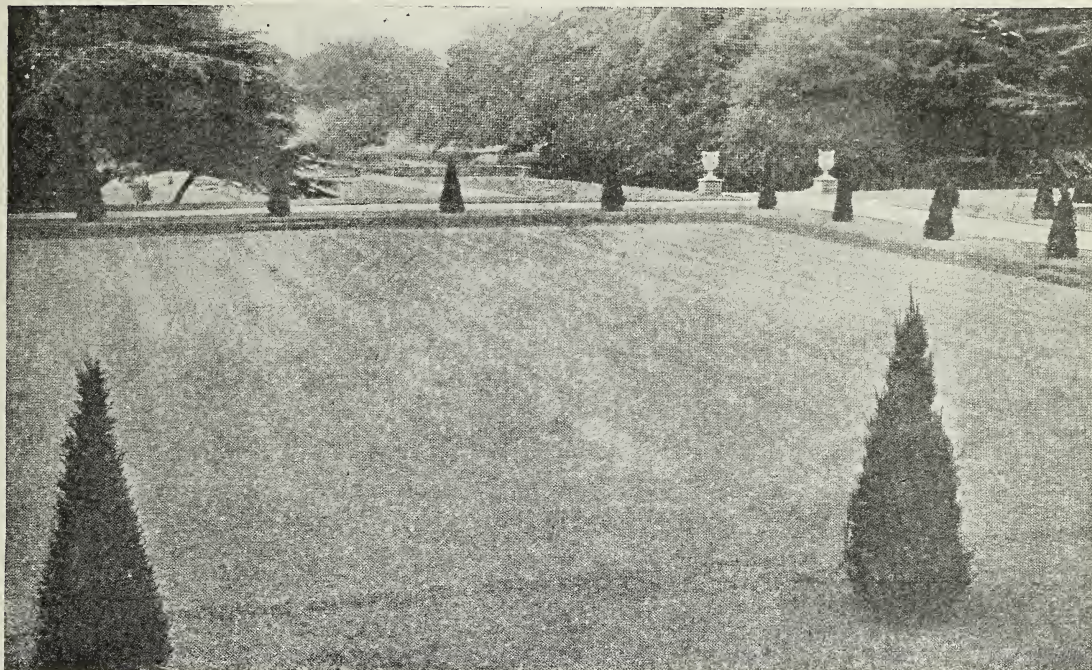

Further information will be gladly furnished on request, including a list of “Carter” courses and others which have been using our materials to their complete satisfaction for years.

LOOK TO YOUR LAWNS

ABOUT LAWNS AND LAWN GRASS SEED

Formation of Lawns from Seed

There is nothing more attractive than a well-kept lawn when surrounding a well placed home.

Many things are to be considered in connection with the making and proper care of lawns. A good lawn cannot be maintained only through intelligent care for a period of years.

The ground should be thoroughly drained and well prepared. The soil ought not to be too rich, as a rapid growth is not wanted in the grasses of a lawn; but the surface should be as much alike in quality as possible and thoroughly pulverized. After sowing, the ground should be rolled and cross-rolled in order to press the seed firmly into the soil, and ten days or so thereafter a light application of Carters Lawn Fertilizer mixed with an equal quantity of good loam or sand, will serve to stimulate the growth of the young grasses. The proper time to sow grass seed depends, of course, upon the latitude. In the Central and Eastern States from March 15 to the middle of May is the best time; but in favorable seasons the sowing may be done up to July 1. Seed may also be sown in the fall, from the latter part of August to the end of September. The sowing should be done when the ground is moist, or before an expected rain, and a subsequent rolling is always advisable. As to weeds in newly lawns, it may not be generally known that many weed seeds actually lie dormant in the ground for six or seven years and will germinate and make their appearance when the soil is turned up. The annual wild grasses, such as crab grass or summer grass, must be pulled up by the roots before they ripen their seed in the fall.

Rolling. As soon as the frost is out of the ground in the spring, the land should be gone over with a heavy roller. Winter frosts loosen the soil, and rolling is necessary to compress it again. Roll frequently.

Mowing. All turf-forming grasses are improved, both in vigor of root-growth and in fineness of texture, by frequent mowings. It is impossible to say just how often the grass should be mown, as that depends upon the rate at which it grows. Too close cutting should be guarded against, however, especially during the hot summer months, when the roots require some top-growth to protect them from the burning sun. A good top-growth is also necessary to protect the roots from severe winter frosts.

To Grass a Bank or a Terrace. For each square rod, take a pound of Terrace Lawn Grass Seed and mix it thoroughly with 6 cubic feet of good, dry garden loam; place in a tub, and add liquid manure, diluted with about two-thirds of water, so as to bring the whole to the consistency of mortar. The slope must be made perfectly smooth, and then well watered, after which the paste should be applied, making it as even and thin as possible.

It is a good plan to sow on good land, in any out-of-the-way place, strips for sod to be used for patching poor parts of the lawn, or for grass borders, etc. The best mixture of seed for this purpose is Kentucky Blue Grass, Fancy Red-Top, Perennial Rye Grass and Red Fescue.

Carter-Thorburn Lawn Grass Seed

Many of the finest lawns in America were produced from this mixture. It is composed exclusively of permanent grasses that will make a finer and thicker turf the older they become, and yet give a rich greensward in three or four weeks from the time of sowing. These are all extra re-cleaned seeds without chaff. Sow at the rate of 80 to 100 pounds to the acre. One pound of our Lawn Grass Seed will sow a plot of 400 to 500 square feet.

REX HUMUS

Yeast of the Earth

Rex Humus as it comes from the mines

We probably all know that Humus is the black residue of decayed organic matter, but few of us know its importance in the soil. Humus is the digestive apparatus of the land. When a man's digestive apparatus wears out he sickens and dies; when a soil's digestive apparatus wears out it sickens and dies also. You have all heard about worn-out farms if you have not seen them. What wore out? The Humus. Take the poorest land you ever saw, or the worst worn-out farm, and if the land is well drained, is supplied with Humus and proper fertilizer and sufficient rain or irrigation, it will produce as large crops as the best virgin soil. Humus acts as a sponge to absorb the excess moisture, and gives off the moisture as the soil becomes dry. With its innumerable bacteria, it breaks up the different plant foods, preparing them to be assimilated by the plant; in fact Humus is the most important element in soil fertility.

Virgin soils usually contain sufficient Humus, but the plant life on cultivated ground uses up the Humus so fast, it is only by putting back on the land large quantities of Humus-forming material, such as manure, straw, etc., that the farmer is enabled to maintain the fertility of the soil. This is not practical for the small gardener nor the owner of a lawn, and the only way to supply his soils' needs is by putting on Natural Humus.

Natural Humus in commercial quantities is found in specially favored localities in immense beds in different stages of decomposition.

Rex Humus is the top layer of the best of these deposits, which we thoroughly sweeten by exposure to the air, but which is treated in no other manner. It is unadulterated, just as it comes from the mines. It is nature's restorer, "The Yeast of the Earth."

For making new, or restoring old lawns, there is nothing equal to Rex Humus. It is odorless, and contains no weed seeds, such as are found in manure. For house plants, hotbeds, greenhouse work, use $\frac{1}{3}$ humus, $\frac{1}{3}$ good garden soil and $\frac{1}{3}$ well-rotted manure, and a little sand if the soil is heavy.

TESTED SEEDS

BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS

CHOICE FLOWER SEEDS

Cultural Hints

Flower seeds are usually divided into Annuals, those living one year; Biennials, those living two years, and usually not flowering until the second year; and Perennials, those living from year to year. Annuals may be made to flower much earlier and many Biennials and Perennials may be made to flower the first year by starting early in hotbeds or in a window in the house.

For starting in the house, take shallow boxes about three inches in depth and bore half-inch holes in the boxes for drainage. Fill the box full of $\frac{1}{3}$ good loam or garden soil, $\frac{1}{3}$ Rex Humus (leaf mold will do) and $\frac{1}{3}$ well-rotted manure mixed thoroughly together and sifted through a fine sieve. Press lightly and sow seed on top of the soil, and cover lightly, pressing the earth lightly with a board. A good rule for covering seed in the house is to cover seed three times its own depth. But some seeds, such as Celosia Childsi, must not be covered even as much as this. Fine seeds like Petunia should be sown on top of the ground and just pressed in with the hand, watered with a fine spray and covered with glass until they come up, then the glass should be removed. Be careful not to water the young plants too much as it will cause them to damp off.

When the young plants are well out of the seed-leaf, they must be transplanted into boxes, setting them about one inch apart, or they may be transplanted into small pots.

Transplant to the garden when the ground warms up to assure safety of the plants.

In sowing in the open ground, have the seed-bed well pulverized and cover the seed from 5 to 8 times the size of the seed, and press the ground lightly over them to preserve the moisture.

Carters Giant Branching Comet Aster

ASTERS

One of the most popular and effective of our garden favorites, producing flowers in profusion in which richness and variety of colors are combined with the most perfect and beautiful forms, and are indispensable in every garden, or pleasure-ground. As a cut-flower it rivals the Chrysanthemum in beauty and diversity of form and color, and remains firm and fresh for days. They are easily grown, very hardy, and offer themselves for use at a time when other garden favorites are gone. They delight in a rich, light soil; and in hot, dry weather should be mulched with rotted manure and well watered, which will increase their beauty and duration of flowers.

Start in coldframe or boxes in the house and transplant to garden when the ground warms up.

RAY OR KING ASTERS

Quite a unique type of the annual Aster. The flowers, which are very large, often 5 inches across, are produced on long stalks, and have prettily arranged quilled petals. Fine for cutting, as they last a week in water if cut before fully expanded. Ht. 1½ ft.

BALSAM (Lady's Slipper)

These favorite half-hardy annuals are of the easiest culture, but love hot sun, rich soil and plenty of water. The young plants are quick, sure growers and, from seed sown in the open ground in May, soon form handsome bushes thickly massed with large, rose-like flowers. Transplanting two or three times has a tendency to dwarf the plants into better shape and to make the flowers more double. Balsams are not often given room for perfect development; they will easily cover 12 to 18 inches of space each way. For the finest flowers choice seed is more than usually essential. We offer only the finest double sorts. 1½ ft.

Carters Victoria Prize Calceolaria

CALCEOLARIA

It is impossible by photography to give any adequate idea of the beauty of these magnificent flowers. The variations and markings are endless, the flowers are of large size and perfect in form, and the habit is unexceptionable. The seeds are very small, and should be sown in the greenhouse on the surface of shallow boxes filled with a light, sandy soil, which has been sifted. Sow moderately thick in rows on the surface and cover very lightly with sifted sphagnum moss, cocoanut waste or very light soil. Press the soil firmly on the seed. The watering should be done carefully; an atomizer or brush is best. To retain the moisture the box may be covered with a pane of glass, which must be removed as soon as plants appear. Soil should be light and rich.

57980. Carters Victoria Prize. Mixed, all colors.

In addition to the usual range of colors found in this plant, our choice strain produces many distinct seedlings of unique color, the rose, pink and cupreous shades being particularly pleasing. Pkt. 25c. and 50c.

CALENDULA (Pot Marigold)

Very showy border plant, lasting the whole of the summer without any attention whatever beyond keeping the seed vessels picked off. Not at all particular to either soil or surroundings, and may be described as everybody's flower. Sow in spring where intended to flower.

ANNUAL

Do not confound these annuals with the winter flowering sorts of the florists. They bloom profusely from early summer until frost, and, when grown in large beds or masses, their bright colors make a splendid show. The plants can be brought into bloom early by sowing the seeds in frames or window-boxes, and afterwards transplanting to the garden; or seed may be sown where the plants are to flower, if the seedlings are thinned to 8 to 10 inches apart. Pinching back in early growth makes the plants bushy and shapely. Average height 1 to 1½ ft.

Cineraria showing wealth of bloom

CINERARIA

One of the most useful and ornamental of greenhouse plants, with flowers of the richest and most brilliant colors and shades, and of the finest texture. It is rather a difficult plant to grow if its requirements are not understood. The mistake generally made is in growing it in a warm house instead of a cool one. For winter blooming sow in April and May in shallow boxes, in fine soil; drop the seed in shallow drills, cover, and press the earth firmly. Set the box where it will get moderate sun; water carefully. Average height 2 ft.

60800. Large-flowered Crimson. Very brilliant and showy.....Pkt. 50c.

60801. Carters Brilliant Prize, Mixed. The constant and painstaking attention which we have lavished upon this strain has resulted in the production of a remarkable range of color. Colors range from pure white through varied shades of pink, rose and carmine to deepest crimson, and pale porcelain, and royal blue to the deepest purple.....Pkt. 25c., 3 pkts. 65c.

60802. Carters Choicest Mixed Cactus. An entirely new strain. The edges of the florets recurve like a single Cactus Dahlia. The colors include white, blue, blush, violet, mauve, and some have a white zone surrounding the dark disc, the florets being tipped with violet, blue, etc. The flowers when cut make charming table decorations. A grand mixture.....Pkt. 25c., 3 pkts. 65c.

60803. Carters Choicest Mixed Stellata. This free-panicked variety has obtained general approval, especially for decorative arrangements, for which purpose it has proved marvellously effective, being a valuable adjunct to the much-admired Carters Brilliant Prize. It should be raised and treated in the same manner as the other greenhouse varieties. Pkt. 25c., 3 pkts. 65c.

60830. Large-flowered White. Handsome. Pkt. 50c.

60832. Maritima candidissima (Dusty Miller). Cultivated for its handsome, silvery white foliage; very ornamental as a decorative pot plant, or for bedding. Half-hardy perennial. 1 to 2 ft. high. Pkt. 10c., oz. 50c.

DELPHINIUM (Larkspur)

In variety and beauty of its blue tints, which are as numerous as they are charming, no other plant can equal the Delphinium. The brilliant flowers are strongly effective in beds or masses, in borders, shrubberies, or in combination with white lilies. Improvements are continually being made in the size of the flowers, as well as in the length and fulness of the spikes. All varieties are easily cultivated and adaptable to many conditions, but in a soil deeply dug and well enriched with fine old manure, their blooms are the finest.

ANNUAL VARIETIES

These include the Rocket or Hyacinth-flowered, so called from their long, narrow flower-spikes. They bloom best in a rather cool, moist soil. Sow seed in the open border, either in spring or fall, preferably the latter so that germination may take place very early in the spring. As the seedlings grow, thin them to stand 6 to 18 inches apart, according to variety. The varieties are seldom kept separate, as they are quite as pretty and convenient for cutting when sown in mixture. The shades of color cover a very wide range. Height 2 ft.

DIANTHUS (Pinks)

Types of Pinks (Dianthus)

In this large and greatly varied genus are some of our most beautiful and best-loved flowers, unsurpassed for color and fragrance. They are hardy biennials that bloom finely the first season, remaining green all winter and blooming the next year also, if lightly protected. Old plants flower the earliest, but as young ones give the largest, finest flowers, sowings are made every year. Seed can be sown under glass in the spring, or in an open, sheltered bed. The seedlings are easily transplanted and should stand 8 to 12 inches apart; dwarf ones about 6 inches. If especially large, brilliant flowers are desired, a bed of well-mixed turfy loam, leaf-mold and well-decayed manure should be prepared for them. Average height 1 ft.

NASTURTIUM

A marvelous range of new colors has been developed in this favorite flower which, for three or four months of the season, makes a better display than almost any other plant. No other hardy annual will produce such a lavish profusion of flowers for so long a time with the same small outlay of time and labor. The maximum of bloom is produced on thin soils, and never flags through the hottest weather. In soils too rich, leaves predominate, and the plants are apt to rot off in wet weather, especially if standing too close. The tall varieties make a very effective display when trained on fences or trellises and the low sorts are fine for edging and massing.

PETUNIA

Once started, Petunias grow almost as easily as weeds and furnish a glorious succession of bloom from early summer until frost. The large-flowered strains are very beautiful and of almost endless variety. Sow in hotbed, coldframes, or in boxes of fine soil in the sunny windows of a warm room in April or May, and transplant about 1 foot apart in garden beds. They will grow in almost any soil and bloom profusely through long droughts. The highest priced sorts produce the finest and handsomest flowers, and those we offer are from the most carefully selected strains, saved at great expense. Apparently similar sorts offered at lower prices are not to be compared with those we offer.

These have deeply cut and fluted margins.

73400. Ruffled Giants. Extra-large flowers, ruffled, Pkt. 25c.

73440. Perfection Mixed. Fringed sorts. Pkt. 25c.

DOUBLE LARGE-FLOWERING

Our seed will produce flowers, large, fragrant, elegantly formed and beautiful either for house, garden or conservatory. Only a small proportion of the double strains bear double flowers. The reason of this is the fact that the seed must be selected from single flowers, the double ones not producing seed. The single flower must be pollinated with pollen from the double ones. Cuttings may be made from double-flowered plants and inserted in light, sandy loam for rooting, thus increasing the percentage of double-flowering plants.

73510. Fringed New Fancy Large-Flowered, Mixed. Flowers large and ruffled. Pkt. 25c.

73511. Carters Splendid Double Petunia. A superb mixture, producing from 25 to 40 per cent of double flowers. Pkt. 25c.

PHLOX DRUMMONDI

(Grandiflora)

The hardy annual Phloxes are dazzling in effect, particularly so when sown in masses or ribbon beds of contrasting colors. Few flowers are so easy to grow from seed, so pretty and compact in habit, so quick to bloom, or give such a brilliant display of color for so little cost and care. There are few desirable colors beyond their range, and if given a good soil and plenty of water they will furnish a long supply of delicate flowers. For pot culture dwarf varieties are valuable and as an undergrowth for tall, bare-stemmed plants they are also valuable. The first sowings should be made as soon as the frost is out of the ground in spring, later ones in May, either where the plants are to bloom, or in a seed-bed, as the Phlox transplants readily. In transplanting set the taller kinds about a foot apart; if planted too thickly they suffer from mildew. Cutting away the flowers and seed pods makes the plants more bushy and compact, and lengthens their blooming time. Average height 1 ft.

GRANDIFLORA, TALL VARIETIES

This section has beautiful, round-petaled flowers, larger than in the older sorts; showy and constant, blooming in the greatest profusion from early summer to frost. Our strain is far superior to that ordinarily sold.

POPPY (Single Annual Varieties)

Carters Shirley Poppy (Silk or Ghost Poppy)

POPPY (Papaver)

Few flowers have the same grace of stem, airiness of poise, and delicacy of tissue as poppies. For beds and borders, with a background of green, there is nothing finer. A sandy loam suits Poppies best, and, as their strong tap-roots are difficult to transplant, it is well to sow the seed where the plants are to bloom. Sow thinly, covering very lightly, and thin the plants to stand about a foot apart. The best plants are those grown from early sowings.

PORTULACA

This charming little hardy annual is unrivaled for brilliancy among plants of low growth, and, although it flourishes under almost all conditions, hot sun and a light, sandy soil suit it best. Nothing is prettier for beds, edgings, rockwork, etc. As an undergrowth for taller plants it is also valuable. Through the driest, hottest seasons it flourishes amazingly, carpeting the ground with a mat of succulent foliage that, in the forenoon, is hidden by gayest of flowers.

Our strains must not be confused with the ordinary, cheap seed usually sold.

SWEET PEAS

The Sweet Pea has become larger and lovelier than ever. There are some flowers of quite distinct shapes of which are a great improvement upon the old type. Plants are more robust, dwarf and branching, and bloom more freely, some varieties showing three or four blooms on a stem.

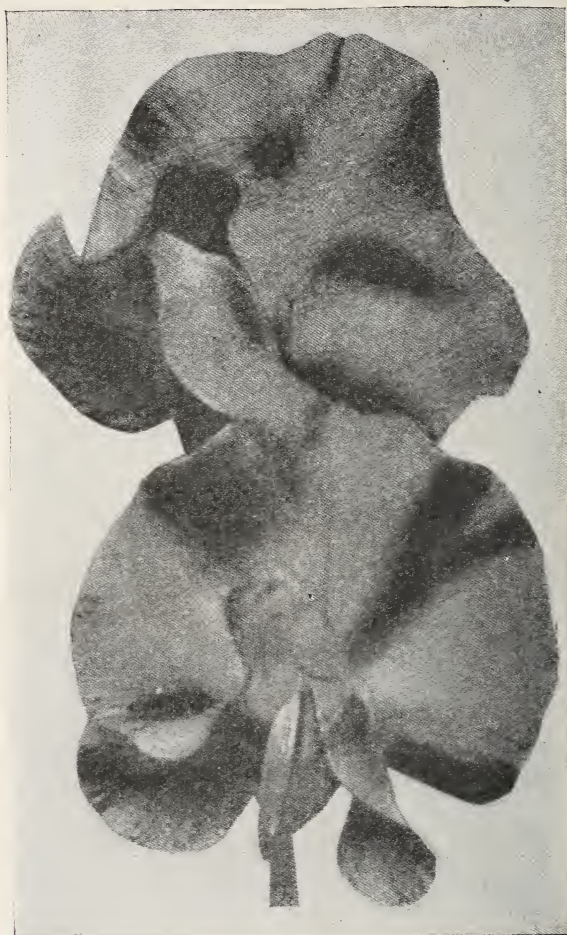

A deep, rich, moist soil is best suited to Sweet Peas, hence a trench should be dug 1½ feet deep and filled with very best loam mixed with bone meal or well-rotted manure. The vines are usually grown in double rows, with a wire trellis or a row of brush between. For each double row make the drills about 10 deep and 9 inches apart. Sow plentifully, covering about 2 inches deep.

NEW GIANT EARLY-FLOWERING SPENCER SWEET PEAS

This new race of Sweet Peas is expected eventually to take the place of all other early and late varieties, as they bloom from four to six weeks earlier. These may also be grown in the greenhouse for winter blooming purposes.

CANNAS

DWARF, LARGE-FLOWERING FRENCH

Cannas are most effective when planted in masses, either alone or in combination with salvia (scarlet sage) and bordered with coleus or other dwarf-growing bedding plants. They are also frequently used with some of the tall-growing ornamental grasses, with which striking combinations can often be secured. They do best in sunny situations, and should be set out about 2 feet apart each way.

QUALITY SEEDS AND BULBS—"THEY COME UP SMILING"

SEED INOCULATION

A Seed Inoculant that Increases Crop Production

Seeds of all legumes—beans, peas, clover, alfalfa, and related crops—will yield far better if inoculated with Farmogerm, and in addition leave in the soil a heavy deposit of nitrogen which benefits all succeeding crops. Gardeners and farmers who have used Farmogerm would not be without it.

FARMOGERM STAYS GOOD INDEFINITELY

No other inoculant on the market is so strong and virile; no other inoculant will thoroughly treat as much seed. The one-acre size bottle of Farmogerm is sufficient for 15 pounds of clover, 20 pounds of alfalfa, 100 pounds of Canada Field Peas, 60 pounds of Vetch, etc. A different bacteria is required for each crop. When ordering, be sure to state what crops you wish to inoculate.

FARMOGERM PRICES REDUCED

New scientific methods of manufacture have given lower prices. You cannot now afford to do without Farmogerm.

A special composite culture is prepared for peas, beans and sweet peas— $\frac{1}{4}$ acre size only. You'll get more peas and beans, and larger sweet peas by using this. Ask for No. 5, price 50c.

Price: Small size, 50c., 1-acre $1.00 3-acres $2.50, 12-acres $9.00. Full directions accompany each bottle.

Legume Inoculation HUMOGERM

Increases Crop Production and Greatly Improves the Soil

HUMOGERM is Economical and Easy to Use

Humogerm carries the nitrifying bacteria in a porous humus medium which acts as a natural home for them—keeps them fresh, active and vigorous. The ventilated cans are friction top and open easily without cutting.

Place seed in pile, moisten slightly with water and a little sugar, pour on HUMOGERM, and plant in usual way. This gives thorough inoculation, and is cheaper, safer and better than the discredited, laborious soil transfer method.

How to Order

Specify crop and number of bushels you wish to inoculate. The can unit designations are on the bushel basis; for instance, the 1 bu. size contains sufficient culture to thoroughly inoculate 1 bu. of legume seed, any variety.

Special garden size for peas, beans, and sweet peas, 25 cts. You will be delighted with the fine results. Prices: $\frac{1}{4}$ bu., 35 cts.; $\frac{1}{2}$ bu., 60 cts.; 1 bu., \$1.00; $2\frac{1}{2}$ bu., \$2.25.

When more than one bushel of seed is planted to the acre, the 1 bu. size contains sufficient inoculation for the amount of seed planted on one acre.

BACTERIA PREPARATIONS

Peas, beans, clovers and vetches are leguminous plants which have the power of gathering and fixing nitrogen from the air, thereby increasing the yield of crops and the fertility of the soil. This is done by means of bacteria in small nodules on the roots of the plants. In certain soils it is hard to secure a good "catch" of these crops unless the seed and soil are previously inoculated with the particular bacteria belonging to that crop. This inoculation is easily accomplished by the cultures listed below. Full directions for application come with each package.
